I went in to find out if it was important to have it taken care of Dr Whitney explained that to leave it as it was; would have the tooth eventually fall apart and she filled it that very morning. I was aware that my mouth had a tooth ache(very mild) on that side of my mouth before she filled the tooth. I have been surprised to realize that this mild ache has since disappeared and my body is much happier. Thank you!! Dr Whitney You will be missed. Have a Happy Retirement!!

I receive excellent care from Young Dental Care. I see the owner, Dr. Amy Newkirk. She puts me at ease and makes the experience as relaxing as a dental visit can be. Before switching to this practice, I took my child to a pediatric dentist, but they are so good with kids that my child is comfortable here, too. Definitely recommend for the entire family.

As usual I had another extraordinary visit to the dentist. This time I had to get teeth impressions made, I hate that, in fact I dreaded going for days before the appointment but the staff is so professional, capable, and competent that it went without incident and I wondered why I was ever worried to begin with! This is just "business as usual" at Young Dental Care.

by Anon on 2018-01-13

Dr. Amy was very careful to make sure I was comfortable and not in pain. I'm a bit dental phobic when it comes to shots and drills and she made it very "safe" for me. Excellent staff, very kind.

All of the staff have always provided excellent customer service skills. It has been our pleasure to deal with the staff for oh so many years...the front desk staff-Pam, Nina, Joanne, and I am sorry I forget the other woman's name-are always very welcoming, very informative, and very professional. Jay is a big asset to your staff-he provides friendliness and has a way of reducing fear during procedures (you can ask him about this). On Thursday, I spoke with Pam about purchasing electric toothbrushes for Christmas gifts. She, as always, was very helpful and explained about the benefits of the Oral B product as well as the cost savings. On Friday, I stopped by and purchased two-she made herself available for business that day and it was a great pleasure to finish this part of our shopping while "working" with Pam. All in all, this experience as well as all of our other visits was been very, very satisfactory. Thank you to all.

Everyone at Young Dental is warm and welcoming. The moment you walk in the door you are greeted with a warm smile and cheerful hello. The wait time is never long. This is the one place I don't bring a book to read while I wait because I know my time in the waiting room will be short. The dental hygentist, Michelle, was delightful as always. She is great with chatting to keep your mind off of the fact you are sitting in a dentist chair. Dr. Amy is wonderful. She explains everything to you. She has a gentle way about her that calm any fears I might have.

Really liked Dr Whitney and Jan. It was my first experience with both. I'd have to give them each 5 stars. They took the time to listen and give explanations. They made sure I was comfortable and in agreement with everything. But that Nina in the office, just kidding Nina is always nice and takes the time to entertain my sense of humor. ★★★★★ by Anon on 2017-03-05

Another wonderful experience. I can't say enough nice things about Young Dental Care. The entire staff is amazing. Dental hygienist Michelle does an amazing job cleaning my special-needs daughter's teeth. She explains everything she is doing and why she is doing it, which really makes a difference. Now my daughter is beginning to understand why it is important to brush twice a day rather than it being just because mom tells her to. :-) Dr. Young also does a great job in explaining what she is doing and making sure my daughter is comfortable. We are just beginning orthodontic treatment, and it is going very well. I credit Dr. Young and her staff for laying the groundwork of making dental care a positive experience for her.

by David L on 2016-05-13

Dr. Young and her staff are fantastic. I would highly recommend them to anyone. She (they - all of her staff) has a true interest and concern for her patient's comfort and care. On a recent visit, she gave me four-or-five different injections of Novocaine (versus the normal one or two). I asked why the procedural change, and she said, "We noticed on reviewing your chart this morning that we had some difficulty numbing you last time, and wanted to make sure you were pain-free this time. . . ." To which I quipped, "Ha!, The injections almost hurt worse than the dental drill. Next-time keep it to two and I'll take my chances!" - WINK! Quips aside, her proactive forethought was/is appreciated, and is but one example of her compassion for her patients. As she proceeded to fit me for a crown, we listened (and laughed) to Tom Leher folk songs. Bottom-line, Her bed-side/chair-side manner is exemplary and helps make visits to her office something to (almost) look forward to.

★★★★★ by Anon on 2015-05-14

Well, I consider myself to be a "special needs" patient...cannot tip my head back quickly, loud sounds bother my ear, vibrations cause vertigo...you get the picture. Jan was excellent taking the X Rays, Jill did a fantastic job with the cleaning, and Dr. Young was so kind and empathetic in understanding my condition. She had vertigo once and said it was awful...yep, it is. But sometimes that's all it takes- a doctor who has experienced the horridness of vertigo and wants to do anything for the patient to avoid having an attack. I thank you all for being so patient with this patient. :)

There is something strange going on at this dentist office! 1. From the moment you walk through the door EVERYONE is friendly. I mean, they are smiling and everyone is saying "Hello how are you", like they really mean it. That's not right, every place has a grumpy Gus. Where are they hiding theirs? 2. If having a friendly staff is not enough of a surprise, the place is very clean and it SMELLS GOOD. It smells like minty freshness. That's not the way dentist offices are suppose to smell! They are suppose to smell like someone just hose the place with industrial (eat the paint off the walls) cleaners, RIGHT. 3. Ok, this is were this place gets really weird! When you get your teeth cleaned or filled or whatever, it is suppose to HURT, right. Not this place! oh no, no pain at all is what they strive for. I go in for a cleaning, and before I know it they are all done. Not only did I have to put up with pleasant conversation the hole time, but they robed me of the pain! I mean, what dentist office really try's not to hurt you. I am telling you this place is weird. 4. When I came in for my appointment, I was all tense and ready for the normal painful dentist experience. When I left, I felt relaxed. It was like I had just spent time with friends not a dentist. Walking into this dentist office is like walking into the Twilight Zone.

Great friendly and knowledgeable staff! They always answer any questions you have and care greatly about you (and your family)! The best dentist office I have ever gone to over the years and this from someone who hates going to the dentist's office!

by Amanda I on 2013-07-30

As usual, our visit was wonderful. In three years plus we have yet to encounter one staff member that isn't over and above in friendliness and helpfulness. Dr. Young and her terrific staff have made a formerly fearful patient happy to go to her appointments. You don't often see the service and compassion that this office offers its patients. Highly recommended!

by Carol A on 2013-07-29

Young Dental Care is more like visiting old friends than going to a dentist's office. The entire staff is so welcoming, warm and friendly. Not too many people can say that they look forward to going to the dentist, but the level of professionalism and care makes it a joy to go there! Carol A.

To start this review, I want you to know I'm not fond of going to the dentist. This was truly the best experience I have ever had. I guarantee that I will be going more often.

by Kathleen W on 2013-07-11

At an early age I became deathly afraid of any dentist. I was 28 before I began seeing a dentist regularly. I was pleasantly surprised at how well my first appointment went with Dr. Keith, Dr. Kim's dad. It has now been 40 years since my journey with Young Dental Care. I have been with Dr. Kim since her Dad's passing and my experience with her has been better than excellent! Young Dental Care has become part of my extended family and I don't know what I would do without them in my life.

My husband and I left Aurora over 21 years ago and still drive about 70 miles round trip to go to Young Dental Care. It is the only medical practice for which we continue to travel back to Aurora because of the excellent dental care and friendly atmosphere. We feel truly cared for by Dr. Kim Young and her employees. In fact, we feel proud to consider ourselves part of the Young Dental Care family!

★★★★★ by Anon on 2012-10-14

The front office staff was just plain rude. Dr. Kim was great - as always...but my Aunt Beth Tabor was very mean to me. I cried in the parking lot. She must be removed from the office or promoted to Chief Administrator...then I'll get better Christmas presents! Hahaha! I love the dentist!

★★★★★ by Anon on 2012-10-12

Dental work was excellent as always. Recommended procedures were explained, pro & con. I felt I could make an informed decision. Staff at all levels were pleasant, caring, very knowledgeable, very supportive. Would recommend without reservation.

I've seen Dr. Young since I was a kid (for 20 years!)and my father and sister have seen her just as long. Now my own husband and children (6yrs, and 3yrs) see her as well. I cannot say enough positive things about this practice. Dr. Kim and Dr. Chen are warm hearted and caring individuals. They really get to know you and treat you as they would their own loved ones. They are amazing with children, and really listen to the child's needs, and treat accordingly. If a patient is shy or nervous, they have a magical way of opening them up. They are very in tune with the parents and child's dynamic, and use that to make the child feel more comfortable. The dental hygienists are phenomenal, and are experts in their field. The assistants and office staff are simply amazing. Each and every single one of them makes you feel like they are welcoming your into their home and part of their family. We all know dental procedures are not fun, however the dentists and staff at Young Dental Care make the experience as pleasant and comfortable as they possibly can. I love them all!

Our entire family is pleased with this dental practice. I'm especially satisfied with their care of my children (currently ages 6 and 4, and both have been going here since they were 3). What is most important to me is that everyone treats my children with respect and communicates clearly and directly with my children about what is going to happen. I appreciate that we, the parents, are welcome to join our children in the room during appointments (it can be hard to find dentists who welcome the parents into the room for the appointment, which I think is unfortunate). Our children have had such positive experiences here. Everyone is friendly, welcoming, patient, and knowledgeable.

Dr Chen and Jan helped, supported, and encouraged me through what could have been a disasterous appointment. I came in for bridgework and left with half of the bridgework prep done and also a tooth removed! I am extremely nervous about dental work and have NEVER had a tooth removed by a dentist (I have always been sent to oral surgeons) Their great work and expertise got me through the entire appointment with NO PAIN. The entire staff was supportive and did everything they could to make my experience comfortable and as stress-free as possible. Thank you, everyone!
